

What can a Corporate Speech Pathologist do for you?

There are many ways a Corporate Speech Pathologist can help you develop and use better communication skills – for business, for academics, for personal improvement, for life.

Find out how a Corporate Speech Pathologist can help you...

- perform presentations with ease
- project your voice
- communicate clearly with customers, colleagues, patients and business contacts
- boost your listening skills
- increase the clarity of your speech and reduce misunderstandings
- polish your business writing skills
- use the sounds of American English clearly and accurately
- improve the sound of your voice
- improve the language you use in social situations
- understand cultural differences in everyday communication
- communicate for success!

A Corporate Speech Pathologist is ready to work with you.

To locate one in your area, visit:

CORSPAN – The Corporate Speech Pathology Network

www.corspan.org