

APPENDIX

10-1

CV Linking

Linking Consonants and Vowels

Put a or an in front of each word and make sure that you link them up without pausing:

rose	aviator
operator	zipper
alligator	riverboat
lollipop	laser
rhinoceros	overachiever

Telling Time

Read out the time and link your sounds. Example 5:06 = five_o_six [faɪvʊsɪks]:

6:04	5:05
7:09	9:02
4:07	12:04
11:06	1:07
1:03	10:05

Linking with /n/

1. It was a one in a million opportunity.
2. "An apple a day" is an idiom in English.
3. In an annual report, there is an entry for an investment.
4. In any nation, there is an issue in everyone's focus.
5. I won an event in an aerobics contest.
6. You know, in an hour I can answer.

7. If there was a need to know I noted it in a report.
8. Anne and Alex phone in at 8 every evening.
9. My zone is 109091.
10. An actor and an agent are in on the deal.

Linking with /r/

1. Calls for Rory or Esther are routed through there.
2. He read her a really long story for an hour.
3. They are in the register under a different name.
4. I need a car and a radio right away.
5. I hear everything there is to hear before I react.

Linking with /t/

Circle the possible flaps in the following sentences and then practice saying them:

1. I sat around the house at eight o'clock.
2. I ate at Otto's and did it again at eleven.
3. I owed a lot of money to Tim.
4. I ought to take it out of here.
5. Tell Matt about it at our meeting.
6. He hit it at an angle.
7. I taught it at a workshop without a problem.
8. She put out a call to let it in.
9. We put in some time to set up the stage, but it isn't what it ought to be.
10. If we eat at eleven, we'll sit at a table.