

APPENDIX

5-2

Intonation and Vowels Worksheet

Use appropriate intonation for each vowel sound in response to the sentences you hear:

1. ah /ɑ/
  - a. Look at the new puppy I just bought!
  - b. So after all that work preparing for the interview, I didn't get the job.
  - c. See? You just have to punch in this code, and it works great.
  - d. We had to watch a dissection in class today.
2. ooh /u/
  - a. Did you see what just happened to that guy?
  - b. And when I walked in, they were kissing!
  - c. Didn't you remember that we have a meeting with the boss right now?
  - d. Would you like some fresh-baked pie?
3. oh /oʊ/
  - a. I guess I'm going to need to borrow some money from you.
  - b. He lost the race by half a second!
  - c. She says she's much better at that than you are.
  - d. So they decided to cancel the wedding.
4. uh /ʌ/
  - a. Isn't that my seat?
  - b. Why did you come home so late last night?
  - c. Didn't you have something to tell me?
  - d. I think I should probably handle this.