

APPENDIX

5-6

Short Dialogs Worksheet

Practice saying each dialog with two different intonations:

1. A. The homework assignment is due tomorrow.
B. Now you tell me.
A. Well, have you done it yet?
B. I'm working on it.
2. A. Where were you?
B. Out with some friends.
A. And you probably didn't have time to call me.
B. Yeah. I guess not.
3. A. I really need your help with this.
B. Well, I'm actually kind of busy.
A. Are you sure you can't spare just a minute or two?
B. Okay.
4. A. Can you please step inside?
B. Did you need to see me about something?
A. I sure did. Have a seat.
B. It sounds important.
A. Well, have a look at this.
B. Oh. I see.
5. A. I've got something to tell you.
B. Okay. I'm all ears.
A. Well, I've been meaning to tell you for quite a while.
B. Well, you might as well get it off your chest.

6. A. Your friend Don is really funny.
B. What do you mean?
A. I think you know what I mean. How long have you known him?
B. Just a couple of years.
7. A. How's that new restaurant?
B. Okay.
A. Because I was thinking of trying it out.
B. You were?
8. A. Time to go.
B. Coming.
A. Did you hear me?
B. I said I was coming.