

Ask: why someone wanted to learn English.	Ask: what kinds of things someone is afraid of.	Ask: which person from history someone admires the most.	Ask: if there is something someone would like to buy one day.	Ask: what sort of things make someone happy.	Ask: someone to say something about politics in his/her country.
Ask: what someone usually does in the evenings.	Ask: what sort of things make someone laugh.	Ask: someone to tell you about a dream he/she remembers.	Ask: about any pets someone has (or used to have).	Ask: someone to tell you an exciting thing that happened to him/her.	Ask: about someone's favorite country for a holiday (and why).
Ask: if someone is like his/her mother or father.	Ask: someone to tell you about the last book he/she read.	Ask: about someone's idea of the perfect teacher, husband or wife.	Ask: how someone usually spends his/her free time.	Ask: about the place where someone lives.	Ask: where someone was born and what he/she remembers from childhood.
Ask: someone to describe his/her living room.	Ask: how many books someone usually reads every year.	Ask: about someone's favorite sport.	Ask: someone to tell you two or three things he/she is not very good at.	Ask: what thing about someone he/she would like to change.	Ask: what someone is going to do on the weekend.
Ask: about someone's favorite restaurant.	Ask: what someone remembers about his/her first or last day at school.	Ask: if someone has ever been in a dangerous situation.	Ask: about someone's plans for the summer.	Ask: which person from history someone would most like to meet (and why).	Ask: what someone thinks is the ideal age to get married.
Ask: about the type of job someone would like to have.	Ask: about a country someone would like to visit (and why).	Ask: someone to describe a good TV show he/she has seen recently.	Ask: what kind of films he/she likes watching.	Ask: someone's idea of a well-dressed man or woman.	Ask: what someone did last weekend.