

Compound Nouns and Descriptive Phrases in Sentences

1. The head coach had a headache on the second day after his birthday.
2. While there was a heat wave in New York it was a cold day in New Orleans.
3. It's a big problem that you have money problems, but at least the math problem is no problem.
4. A blackbird is a black bird, and a yellowjacket is a yellow insect.
5. The Assistant Principal got in financial trouble and needed financial aid.
6. That English doctor had to take an English test to go to law school.
7. They built a new school next to the art school, and now one of the art teachers is going to start as a new teacher there.
8. You should go on line to USbank.com because a lot of dotcom workers do their online banking there.
9. I took a hot shower, ate a hot dog, drank some cold brew coffee, and had a cold brew.
10. They're called newlyweds because they are newly wed, but if you live in a white house or a green house, it doesn't mean you live in the White House or a Greenhouse.