

Intonation Pattern Worksheet 1

End of Statement

Listen to the following sentences and decide if they are finished or not.

1. I've been doing some yoga
2. She went to the police department and filed a report
3. We are expecting them to bring chips, and salsa
4. They didn't want to go downtown for the concert
5. Let's go to Frank's house, and then to the restaurant

Questions

Read each statement as a statement, question, or a statement of disbelief. Your partner will decide which intonation you used.

Sentence	Statement ↘	Question ↗	Disbelief ↗
1. He lives in India
2. You haven't done it yet
3. It costs $99
4. It looks like it will rain
5. Things are getting better
6. We shouldn't do that again
7. We have the same last name
8. They're going to have to do it over
9. He won't be able to finish on time
10. He doesn't know how to drive

Lists

Come down on the last item in each list.

1. She bought lettuce, and tomatoes, and pickles
2. To make tacos you need meat, cheese, tomatoes, shells
3. I've been to Korea, Thailand, and Japan.
4. They'll need money, food, clothing.
5. He can speak Norwegian, Danish, Swedish, and German.